

VTM 20

(600750)

Who Uses:

VTM 20 is a fully balanced Vitamin and Trace Mineral Supplement designed for all classes of horses. It is an excellent fit for growing horses and gestating mares.

Description

A general purpose protein, vitamin and mineral pellet designed to supplement oats and other grain mixes. Can be used on it's own with high quality forage.

Features	Benefits
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Complete and balanced source of vitamins and trace minerals.• Contains quality protein and a high level of lysine.• Convenient pellet form• Contains chelated trace minerals• Fortified with high levels of vitamins• Contains yeast culture.	Simplified way to feed your horse. Necessary for growth and development. Palatable and suitable for mixing with grains Increased bioavailability vital for optimum growth and development Vitamins are critical for tissue repair and immune function. Improves digestibility of the nutrients and promotes good digestive health.

Directions for Use:

Feed VTM 20 as the sole source of trace minerals and vitamins at 0.25% of a percent of bodyweight per horse per day for a mature horse. (e.g. 2.5 lbs for a 1000 lb horse), and at 0.75% for weanlings and 0.50% yearlings. VTM 20 can be fed on it's own with high quality forage or can be mixed with grains for those horses needing additional calories